

Llandyfaelog Agricultural and Horticultural Show.

Health and safety policy.

Llandyfaelog agricultural show is committed to ensuring that all activities relating to the show are carried out before during and after the show itself with safety as its prime concern not to cause ill health or injuries.

Specifically the Llandyfaelog show committee will as far as is reasonably practicable,

- conduct the society's undertaking in such a way to ensure persons, who may be involved in coordinating and preparing the showground before the event participating as officials at the show itself clearing the site after the event and anyone attending the show are not exposed to risks to their health and safety.
- bring to the notice of all exhibitors retailers caterers and agents and employees their duty to cooperate with the society to ensure that this policy is effective and to offer all necessary assistance to ensure that the health and safety at the show of all exhibitors and others on the show ground.
- requiring those participating in or attending the show to assist the Society in their aims of preventing accidents and abiding by the instructions given by officials and stewards before during and after the event
- ensuring that the appropriate risk assessments are carried out for the society's activity and be provided by an agreed with individual exhibitors.

This statement has been approved and adopted on behalf of the Llandyfaelog agricultural show committee by.

Chairman

Dated.